Our database describes Students, Schools, School stats, Tests, Test centers, Locations, Organizations and Years.

- Students are uniquely identified by id, and are additionally described by the year of birth, sex, educational status. Every student is located in exactly one location. Every student is enrolled at most one school. Every student takes at least one test at some test center in some year.

- Schools are identified by name, and are additionally described by type and ownership. Every school is located in exactly one location. Every school is overseen by exactly one organization. Every school has at most one set of school statistics for the corresponding year.

- School stats (school statistics) are identified by id and are additionally described by a number of features listed later in this document.

- Organizations are identified by name.

- Locations are identified by codifier and are additionally described by region name, area name, territory name and territory type

- Tests are identified by type and subject. There are 13 subjects. Every test is additionally described by status, language of the test, and scores. Some tests are also described by test date.

- Test centers are identified by name. Every test center is located in exactly one location.

- Years are uniquely identified by year.